Someone You Know!

Stress can take a toll on your health, and the bad news we're being bombarded with every day is not helping. You may notice friends, family members or co-workers who are suffering with pain which is only made worse by all this stress. We want to help...so here's some good news you can share with them!

With this coupon, they can come to our office and receive a complete diagnostic evaluation (with x-rays, if needed) for only $10.40! (It's tax season...get it?) This would include all they would need to see if we can help them ease their suffering!

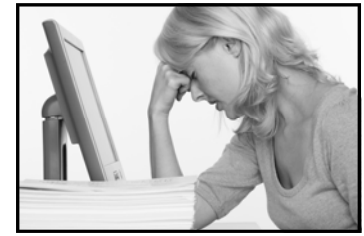

All the money collected will be donated to the Emergency Residence Project so they can continue to help those who are in need.

This offer expires April 30, so call Dr. Davis at 515-292-4988 to schedule an appointment TODAY!
